PBR WORLD CHAMPIONS

In 2024, Cassio Dias became the second rider in PBR history to be crowned the PBR World Champion and Rookie of the Year in the same season, repeating the feat accomplished by Rafael Jose de Brito in 2023. Dias dominated the regular season, winning seven events to qualify for his first PBR World Finals ranked No. 1 with a 560.5-point lead over No. 2 John Crimber. While it appeared Dias would cruise to his first gold buckle, he was stepped on after bucking off Norse God in Round 3 of the Eliminations stage, suffering a plethora of potentially season-ending injuries. After being blackboarded out of Cowtown Coliseum and hospitalized, Dias returned the following weekend at AT&T Stadium for the Championship. Recovering from spinal fractures, broken ribs, a partially collapsed lung, and a concussion, Dias rebounded from buckoffs in the first two rounds to cover Ricky Vaughn for 92.5 points in Round 3 and Chiseled for 79.5 points in Round 4 to capture both the Rookie of the Year title and PBR World Championship. Dias is the 22nd different rider, and ninth Brazilian, to win what has been called the most difficult individual championship in professional sports. It is the 14th time a rider from Brazil has won the PBR World Championship. Throughout the season, Dias went 41-for-76, covering 53.95% of his bulls. He earned $1,555,707, including $1,048,600 at the World Finals.

PBR WORLD FINALS EVENT WINNERS

The PBR World Finals event winner is the rider who earns the most aggregate points following the four rounds of competition for the PBR World Finals - Championship. In 2024 in Arlington, Texas, Sage Steele Kimzey went 3-for-4 to take home the event title and rise to No. 7 in the Unleash The Beast standings to finish the season. Entering the stage ranked No. 21 in the world, Kimzey topped Jersey Tuff for 89 points in Round 1. Despite bucking off Army Slasher in a brief 1.2 seconds in the second round, the Oklahoman rebounded on Championship Sunday, covering Preachers Kid for a monstrous 91 points and Let's Roll for 89.5 points. Right on his spurs was No. 2 John Crimber, but the teenage phenom was bucked off in the penultimate out of the event by Hang 'em High, leaving seven-time PRCA (Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association) World Champion Kimzey victorious.

PENDLETON WHISKY VELOCITY TOUR CHAMPION

The Pendleton Whisky Velocity Tour (PWVT) is the PBR's expansion tour and primary conduit to the organization's premier Unleash The Beast. It offers established and up-and-coming bull riders an opportunity to earn money while sharpening their skills.

In 2024, Grayson Cole qualified for the Velocity Tour Finals ranked No. 2 in the series standings, trailing No. 1 Ederson Santos by just 17.5 points. Throughout the regular season, Cole won two events in Bridgeport, Connecticut, in March, and Grand Forks, North Dakota, in April, and rode to an additional six Top 5 finishes.

In Corpus Christi, Santos aggravated an existing knee injury and was ruled out of the competition after the first round, and Cole took advantage, covering Pearl Snap for an event-best 89.25 points in the second round, clinching the Velocity Tour Championship. Cole concluded the series' season-ending event ninth, going 1-for-3, and catapulted to the No. 1 spot in the Velocity Global standings. He edged No. 2 Santos by 40.5 points to be crowned the 2024 PBR Velocity Tour Champion.

In being crowned the 2024 Velocity Tour Champion, Cole won the $50,000 bonus and earned one of the final five berths to the PBR World Finals - Eliminations at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, Texas. While he was shut out during Eliminations, Cole rode Storm Trooper for 87 points in the subsequent Ride For Redemption, but it wasn't enough to punch his ticket to the Championship. He finished 2024 ranked No. 69 in the Unleash The Beast standings.

TOURING PRO DIVISION LEADING POINTS WINNER

The Touring Pro Division (TPD) is the developmental tour of the PBR, where both established veterans and newcomers to the professional ranks compete against some of the sport's best bucking bulls. The Touring Pro Division operates during the individual season alongside the Pendleton Whisky Velocity Tour and elite Unleash The Beast. The TPD gives riders the opportunity to win both money and PBR Velocity Tour Global points, crucial in every rider's quest to qualify for the organization's premier series.

Before 2013, the TPD winner was determined by money earned. Now the winner is determined by the bull rider who captures the most Velocity Tour Global points at these events.

PBR CHALLENGER SERIES CHAMPIONS

The PBR Challenger Series Champion is the rider who earns the most Challenger Series Global points across all individual events globally, held from May to October (alongside the PBR Teams league).

Cody Coverchuk was crowned the 2024 PBR Challenger Series Champion, logging four event wins throughout the season while competing exclusively in Canada.

Coverchuk began his campaign red-hot, winning the Canadian Cup Series event in London, Ontario, in June to start a stretch of six consecutive Top 15 finishes. In addition to his win in London, the Saskatchewan native won the Humboldt Touring Pro Division event in his home province during his scorching run.

In July, Coverchuk rode to his third victory in Kinsella, Alberta, to continue to build his lead in the Challenger Global standings. Unfortunately, he tore his groin, sidelining him until late September when the Canadian cowboy roared back to win his first event back at the Cup Series event in Grande Prairie, Alberta.

While Coverchuk did not compete at the Challenger Series Championship in Las Vegas, Nevada, in October, he had done enough to become the 2024 Challenger Series Champion, ending the season with a 34-point lead over fellow Canadian and No. 2 Nick Tetz. Tetz went on to be crowned the 2024 PBR Canadian Champion in November, edging No. 2 Coverchuk by 284.75 points.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

The Rookie of the Year award is presented to the bull rider who earns the most PBR Unleash The Beast points during their first elite tour season. From 2003-2012, the award was presented to the bull rider who earned the most money during his first season competing on the premier series. Starting in 2013 the Rookie of the Year award was given to the rider who earned the most points.

In 2024, Cassio Dias became the second consecutive rider to win both the PBR World Championship and Rookie of the Year honor, following in the footsteps of Rafael Jose de Brito who first accomplished the feat in 2023. Dias topped No. 2 John Crimber by 238.5 points in both the World Championship and Rookie of the Year races.

After winning the second event of the Unleash The Beast season in St. Louis, Missouri, in December, Dias overtook the lead in the Rookie of the Year race, remaining atop the standings for the remainder of the season. Dias concluded the 2024 season with seven event wins, one short of the single-season record of eight won by both Jose Vitor Leme and Justin McBride, to qualify for his first PBR World Finals No. 1 in the world with a 560.5-point lead over No. 2 John Crimber.

Battling multiple injuries that he suffered in the Eliminations phase of the World Finals, Dias battled back during the Championship of bull riding's most prestigious event, going 2-for-4 and finishing ninth to win both his first World Championship and the Rookie of the Year title.

*DENOTES A RIDER WHO WON THE PBR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP IN THE SAME SEASON.

PBR TEAMS CHAMPIONS

The PBR Teams Champion is the team that wins the PBR Teams Championship progressive elimination tournament. In the first two seasons, all eight teams made the postseason and were seeded based on their regular season records, with the Top 2 teams receiving a first-round bye. Beginning in 2024, the Top 6 teams in the regular season standings automatically qualify for the PBR Teams Championship while the bottom four teams must face off in the Ride-In Round, a four-way game held the day before the start of the PBR Teams Championship to determine who will earn the final two berths.

After finishing No. 5 in the regular season with a 13-15 record, the Austin Gamblers made a run in Sin City and caught fire on Championship Sunday to win the team's first PBR Teams Championship.

The Gamblers faltered out of the gate, falling to the No. 6 Missouri Thunder, 265.75-90.5, in Round 1, but Head Coach Michael Gaffney's squad immediately rebounded, eliminating the No. 7 Nashville Stampede and No. 10 New York Mavericks, 88.75-87.75-83.75, in the first Last Chance Game to advance to Round 2. There, they defeated the No. 2 Carolina Cowboys, 349.75-166, to advance to the Semifinals.

On Championship Sunday, the Gamblers caught fire. In their Semifinal showdown, Austin posted the first perfect game in team history, and just the second in PBR Teams postseason history, to upset the No. 1 Kansas City Outlaws, 432.75-357.5. Now seemingly unstoppable, Austin beat the Carolina Cowboys in the Championship Game, 357.5-252.5, to win the 2024 PBR Teams Championship. On the final day of the season, the Gamblers went an incredible 9-for-10, including perfect 2-for-2 performances from Dalton Kasel, Lucas Divino, Kaique Pacheco, and Jose Vitor Leme. Pacheco, a member of the 2022 PBR Teams Champion Nashville Stampede, became the first rider in league history to win two PBR Teams Championships.

PBR TEAMS MVPS

The PBR Teams MVP is the rider who earns the most aggregate points at the conclusion of the PBR Teams regular season. In 2024, John Crimber, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2024 PBR Teams New Rider Draft by the Florida Freedom, went an impressive 26-for-40 (65%) to win the MVP award, bested the Texas Rattlers' Brady Fielder by 147.25 points. Crimber led the league in rides (26), and 90-point rides (6) while tying for the lead in Shootout Round rides (6). He helped propel the Freedom to the No. 3 seed heading into the 2024 PBR Teams Championship with a 16-12 record. Crimber kept it rolling in the postseason as well, going a perfect 4-for-4 to become the first rider to win both PBR Teams MVP and PBR Teams Championship MVP titles in the same season. Despite Crimber's heroics, Florida fell to the No. 2 Carolina Cowboys, 178.25-90.75, in the Semifinals before losing 176.25-89.25 to the No. 1 Kansas City Outlaws in the Third Place Game.

YEAR	RIDER	TEAM	MVP POINTS
2024	John Crimber	Florida Freedom	2256.75
2023	Jose Vitor Leme	Austin Gamblers	1,765.25
2022	Jose Vitor Leme	Austin Gamblers	1,683.25

PBR TEAMS CHAMPIONSHIP MVPS

The PBR Teams Championship MVP is the rider who earns the most aggregate points during the PBR Teams Championship. In 2024, John Crimber became the first rider to win both PBR Teams MVP and PBR Teams Championship MVP titles in the same season. The young phenom rode Riser for 88.75 points to push the Freedom to a 262.75-178.5 win over the No. 10 New York Mavericks in Round 1. Remaining red-hot, Crimber topped Mo Money for a game-high 89.75 points in Round 2 as Florida downed the No. 4 Texas Rattlers, 349.25-261. Crimber made the 8 for a monstrous 90.75 points on Renegade in the Semifinals against the No. 2 Carolina Cowboys, but his teammates were unable to match him, and the Freedom fell 178.25-90.75. Now seemingly unstoppable, Crimber converted for a fourth-straight time on Peterbilt for his third game-high ride of the tournament, scoring 89.25 points, but the No. 1 Kansas City Outlaws won the Third Place Game, 176.25-89.25 despite the Texan's efforts.

YEAR	RIDER	TEAM	MVP POINTS
2024	John Crimber	Florida Freedom	358.5
2023	Joao Ricardo Vieira	Texas Rattlers	351.25
2022	Kaique Pacheco	Nashville Stampede	359

PBR TEAMS COACH OF THE YEAR

The PBR Teams Coach of the Year award is determined by a vote of their peers from the league's 10 teams.

Head Coach J.W. Hart pulled all the right strings for the Kansas City Outlaws in 2024, leading them to a league-best 19-9 record during the 2024 season, tying the record for most wins in a single season. Under Hart, the Outlaws were one of the most consistent teams in the league, winning at least one game at each of the season's 12 regular season events and suffering consecutive losses only once the entire season. The Outlaws led the league in qualified rides (83), riding percentage (83-for-159, 52.20%), 90-point rides (7), and Shootout Round rides (10). Entering the 2024 PBR Teams Championship as the No. 1 seed after overtaking the top spot in the standings on the last day of the regular season, it took a perfect game from the Austin Gamblers to overcome the Outlaws in the Semifinals, 432.75-357.5. Despite the loss, the team bounced back and defeated the Florida Freedom, 176.25-89.25, to finish the postseason tournament third.

YEAR	COACH	TEAM	FINAL STANDING
2024	J.W. Hart	Kansas City Outlaws	Third Place (3 rd)
2023	Cody Lambert	Texas Rattlers	Teams Champions (1st)
2022	Justin McBride	Nashville Stampede	Teams Champions (1st)

PBR TEAMS EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR

The PBR Teams Executive of the Year award is determined by a vote of their peers from the league's 10 teams.

General Manager Jim Smith assembled one of the deepest rosters in the league for the Kansas City Outlaws during the 2024 PBR Teams season. Kansas City was the only team with three different riders (No. 3 Sandro Batista, No. 5 Cassio Dias, and No. 10 Koltin Hevalow) in the Top 10 of the 2024 MVP standings, and all three posted at least one 90-point ride during the 2024 season. 2024 PBR World Champion Dias, who the Outlaws selected in the first round of the 2023 PBR Teams New Rider Draft, was one of just two riders to finish in the Top 5 of the MVP standings in both 2023 and 2024. Smith also proved he could make moves outside of the Draft, acquiring Batista from the Carolina Cowboys for future considerations in September 2023 before resigning the Brazilian in the offseason. Under Smith, the Outlaws have put together a Championship-caliber roster ready to contend at the highest level for years to come.

GLEN KEELEY AWARD

Presented to the Canadian bull rider who accumulates the most Unleash The Beast points during the season, this award is named in honor of Glen Keeley, a Canadian bull rider who was fatally injured on March 24, 2000, at a PBR event in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The PBR retired Keeley's back number – 68.

Prior to 2013, the award was given to the Canadian bull rider who earned the most money in a season.

PBR HEROES & LEGENDS

The PBR Heroes & Legends Celebration honors recipients in five prestigious award categories each season: The Ring of Honor, the Sharon Shoulders Award, the Jim Shoulders Lifetime Achievement Award, the Brand of Honor, and the Ty Murray Top Hand Award. Each award honors a segment of the bull riding or rodeo community, and each recipient has made a substantial contribution to the sport of bull riding.

Note: The Heroes & Legends celebration was held at the World Finals until 2008 when it became part of the PBR event in Pueblo, Colo., where the organization's headquarters are located. Because of the change, a class was not inducted in 2008. The ceremony returned to the World Finals in 2011. In 2020, due to the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic, the awards were postponed, and scheduled to resume in 2021. There were no inductees in 2022. In 2023, the Heroes & Legends Celebration was relocated to the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City, Okla., held prior to the PBR Teams event.

PBR RING OF HONOR

The PBR Ring of Honor was created in 1996 to recognize those who have had the most profound impact on bull riding, both in and out of the arena. The 48 members share a common bond of courage, strength, and dedication in playing a significant role in helping professional bull riding become what it is today. Each inductee is presented with a ring featuring the PBR logo along with their name and year of induction.

TY MURRAY TOP HAND AWARD

First awarded in 2018, the Ty Murray Top Hand Award honors rodeo cowboys who had succeeded at the highest level of the sport of rodeo, making significant and lasting contributions to the sport. Based on traditional cowboy values, such as courage, pride, respect, and hard work, the award aligns with the goals of PBR's Founders and serves to protect and advance rodeo's heritage for generations to come.

BRAND OF HONOR

The Brand of Honor was created in 2011 to honor the legendary bulls of the PBR. From the beginning, the organization has recognized that there are two great athletes in every ride. The Brand is the natural extension of that recognition, honoring those animal athletes whose spirit and skill have surpassed even the highest expectations of the bull riding world.

MILLION-DOLLAR EARNERS

The PBR changed bull riding from a hobby into a profession, allowing bull riders to make a real living. As of the 2024 PBR Teams Finals, the PBR has paid out more than $240 million to its athletes and has turned 51 bull riders into millionaires, beginning with Chris Shivers who was 21 years old when he reached the milestone. Two-time PBR World Champion J.B. Mauney currently tops the list as the top-earning athlete in Western sports history with more the $7.4 million in earnings. In 2024, John Crimber became the fastest rider to reach $1 million in winnings during his rookie season when he finished runner-up in both the Rookie of the Year and PBR World Championship races as an 18-year-old.
